SAMPLE HR POLICY

RAG Testing Document — Fictional Company

Company	NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd.
Document ID	HR-POL-001
Version	2.0
Effective Date	01 January 2026
Review Date	01 January 2027
Policy Owner	Human Resources Department

1. Purpose

This Human Resources Policy establishes general workplace standards, employee responsibilities, attendance expectations, leave procedures, compensation practices, workplace conduct, and employee support procedures at NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd. The policy is intended to provide consistent guidance to employees, managers, and the Human Resources Department.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time employees, part-time employees, interns, trainees, and contract employees working for NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd., unless a written employment agreement or applicable law provides otherwise.

3. Working Hours and Attendance

Standard working hours are Monday to Friday, 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, including a one-hour lunch break. Employees are expected to record attendance through the company's attendance system. Employees arriving more than 15 minutes after their scheduled start time should inform their manager or HR. Repeated unexplained late arrivals may result in corrective action.

4. Remote and Hybrid Work

Eligible employees may work remotely up to two days per week with prior manager approval. Employees working remotely must remain available during core hours from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM, attend scheduled meetings, and maintain appropriate information security. Remote work is a work arrangement and does not change the employee's performance or attendance responsibilities.

5. Leave Policy

Employees receive annual leave, sick leave, and personal leave according to their employment category and applicable company rules. Planned leave should normally be requested at least three working days in advance through the HR portal. Sick leave should be reported to the manager as soon as reasonably possible. Emergency leave may be approved based on circumstances.

6. Annual Leave Entitlement

Full-time employees who have completed at least six months of continuous service are eligible for 18 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. New employees receive a prorated entitlement based on their joining date. Unused annual leave may be carried forward for up to 12 months, subject to company approval and applicable law.

7. Sick Leave

Eligible full-time employees receive up to 12 days of paid sick leave per calendar year.
A medical certificate may be requested when an employee is absent for more than two consecutive working days. Sick leave should not be used for non-medical personal activities.

8. Parental Leave

Eligible employees may receive parental leave in accordance with applicable Indian employment laws and company benefits. Employees should contact HR before the expected leave period so that required documentation and work transition arrangements can be completed.

9. Compensation and Payroll

Employees are paid monthly through the company's payroll system. Salary is normally credited on the last working day of each month. Statutory deductions, applicable taxes, and approved employee deductions may be applied. Employees should report payroll discrepancies to HR within 10 working days of receiving their salary statement.

10. Performance Reviews

Formal performance reviews are conducted twice each year, normally in June and December. Reviews may consider achievement of goals, quality of work, collaboration, communication, professional conduct, and role-specific responsibilities. Employees may discuss review outcomes with their manager and HR.

11. Workplace Conduct

Employees are expected to treat colleagues, customers, vendors, and visitors respectfully. Harassment, discrimination, bullying, threats, intimidation, violence, and retaliation are not permitted. Employees should report workplace concerns to their manager, HR, or the designated complaint mechanism.

12. Anti-Harassment

NovaTech Solutions maintains a workplace free from sexual harassment and other prohibited harassment. Complaints will be handled through the appropriate internal process. Employees who raise concerns in good faith must not be subjected to retaliation for making a complaint or participating in an investigation.

13. Confidentiality and Data Protection

Employees must protect confidential company information, customer information, employee records, passwords, source code, business plans, and other restricted information. Confidential information must not be shared with unauthorized individuals or uploaded to unauthorized services. Employees must follow company security procedures when handling personal or confidential data.

14. Acceptable Use of Company Technology

Company laptops, email accounts, cloud services, networks, and software are primarily provided for business purposes. Limited personal use may be permitted when it does not interfere with work, create security risks, or violate company rules. Employees must not install unauthorized software or attempt to bypass security controls.

15. Conflict of Interest

Employees must disclose situations that could create an actual or potential conflict between their personal interests and company responsibilities. Examples may include financial interests in a supplier, accepting inappropriate gifts from vendors, or participating in outside work that directly conflicts with the employee's duties.

16. Travel and Expense Reimbursement

Reasonable business travel expenses may be reimbursed when approved in advance. Employees should submit expense claims with receipts within 15 calendar days after returning from business travel. Expenses that are personal, unsupported by required documentation, or outside approved limits may not be reimbursed.

17. Training and Development

Employees may participate in company-sponsored technical, professional, compliance, and leadership training. Managers should support relevant learning opportunities while ensuring that business responsibilities are maintained.

18. Grievance Procedure

Employees who have a workplace concern should first raise the matter with their manager when appropriate. If the concern cannot be resolved or involves the manager, the employee may contact HR directly. HR will review the concern and may conduct an investigation or request additional information.

19. Disciplinary Action

Violations of company policy may result in corrective or disciplinary action depending on the nature and severity of the issue. Possible actions include verbal counseling, written warning, suspension, or termination, subject to applicable law and company procedures. Serious misconduct may result in immediate escalation.

20. Separation and Notice Period

Employees who resign must provide the notice period specified in their employment agreement. Before the final working day, employees must return company property, complete knowledge transfer, and resolve outstanding administrative requirements. Final settlement will be processed according to company procedures and applicable law.

21. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who approves annual leave? A: The employee's reporting manager normally approves planned leave, with HR maintaining the official leave record.

Q: Can remote work be taken without approval? A: No. Remote work requires eligibility and prior manager approval.

Q: When are salaries paid? A: Salaries are normally credited on the last working day of each month.

Q: How many annual leave days are provided to eligible full-time employees? A: 18 paid annual leave days per calendar year, subject to the conditions in this policy.

Q: When are performance reviews conducted? A: Formal reviews are normally conducted in June and December.

Q: Who should employees contact about workplace concerns? A: Employees may contact their manager, HR, or the designated complaint mechanism, depending on the nature of the concern.

22. Policy Disclaimer

This document is a fictional sample created for document retrieval, question-answering, and RAG testing. It is not an actual employment policy and should not be treated as legal advice or as a substitute for a company's official HR policies or applicable law.